Photography students will display their photography at KZF Gallery.

Students in the Photography Society at the College of Mount St. Joseph have their photographs on display at KZF Gallery. The exhibit showcases the talent of eight students in both digital and film photography: Elizabeth Bible, Lauren DiFulvio, Ben Haenning, Anna Listermann, Jan McComas-Birchfield, Amy Roller, Abby Roy, and Kristina Stegman.

A part of KZF Design, KZF Gallery represents the design firm's commitment to showcasing the work of regional artists. The Gallery is free and open to the public during regular business hours.

The Gallery will host an opening night reception on Friday, January 15, 5:30-7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend the exhibit and meet the student photographers. KZF Gallery is located in the Baldwin Building, 655 Eden Park Drive. For more information about the event, call the College at 513-244-4496.

The College of Mount St. Joseph is an undergraduate and graduate Catholic college that provides an interdisciplinary liberal arts and professional curriculum emphasizing values, service and social responsibility.
