award winner

KZF Design is pleased to announce the TRIKO Valley Section of the American Society of Highway Engineers (ASHE) has awarded us the prestigious Donald C. Schramm Transportation Improvement Award for our work on the Falmouth-Newport Road (US 27) project in Campbell County, KY. The Transportation and Municipal Group at KZF has been honored to receive this distinction four times since its inception in 2000. We salute our client, the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet, for their commitment to enhancing the quality of life in Kentucky, and KZF's design professionals for their unwavering dedication to delivering innovative and inspired design solutions.
