

KZF's Director of Justice Planning and Design published in Sheriff Magazine

industry leader

David Bostwick, AIA, LEED® AP, Director of Justice Planning and Design at KZF, has been published in the Jan/Feb 2011 issue of Sheriff Magazine. David's article "Eyes Wide Open" explains the benefits of combining sheriff and police operations into one facility, focusing on the crucial role of proper planning in the smooth integration of agencies' services and personnel.

David possesses more than 20 years of criminal justice planning and design experience and has been involved in the planning, design and construction of law enforcement, courts and correctional facilities throughout the US.

Visit KZF.COM/justice, or click here for more information and to read the article.

To hear more about KZF Design and the Government & Justice Group contact David Bostwick at 513.621.6211 or by email at david.bostwick@kzf.com

